

Neighbourhood Summit 2022

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=AwY_NKYDju8

Building inclusivity and accessibility in our neighbourhoods: What might it take?

0.30: Open and welcome by the Honourable Steven Marshall, Former Premier of South Australia

3.00: Introduction of the Neighbourhood Circles Project by Robbi Williams, CEO JFA Purple Orange

8.00: About the Neighbourhood Circle Project with Sarah Faulkner, Project Lead

15.30: Sharing local stories of neighbourhood inclusion; what might it take?: Panel Session 1

- Annemijn van Marlen: The Pear-Neighbourhood Node
- Jody Moate: The Little Library on Lloyd Street
- Barry Sherwell: Ovingham Greening

53.10: Video Showcase #1: A place of welcome and belonging

1:02.00: What am I doing to build relationships and safeguarding in my community? Panel Session 2

- Annette Holden: Disability Awareness Facilitator and Advocate
- Helen Neale: Parent of Tom and his Circle of Support
- Brenton Neill: Morphett Vale Football Club Member; and Donald Sewer: Support Worker

1:52.00: Video showcase #2: One Voice Kingston Park

1:59.00: Special guest speaker Sophie Thomson; garden consultant, writer, author and presenter: More grows in a garden than a gardener grows: What have I learned from my years spent in community?

2:49.00: Building inclusive neighbourhoods and enhancing neighbourliness: Where to from here?

2:59.30: Day recap, thank you, and close by Jayne Barrett, Director CLP